

Adam DJ Brett

International Research Associate

6339 Charlotte Pike #532 - Virtual
Nashville, Tennessee 37029
US

+1 (817) 760-0292

✉ info@adamdjbrettp.com

🌐 <https://www.adamdjbrett.com>

in adamdjbrettp

🔗 adamdjbrettp

🆔 0009-0004-6725-8425

Professional Summary

Operations Manager and International Research Associate with the American Indian Law Alliance and a Visiting Professor of Digital Humanities and Indigenous Studies at United Lutheran Seminary

Experience

- Current Operations Manager & International Research Associate, American Indian Law Alliance, Remote
Managing operations and conducting international research initiatives with the American Indian Law Alliance, a prominent organization focused on Indigenous rights and advocacy.
- Current Visiting Professor of Digital Humanities and Indigenous Studies, United Lutheran Seminary, Remote Teaching courses in digital humanities and Indigenous studies, bridging academic research with digital methodologies and Indigenous knowledge systems.
- Current Part-time Faculty - Department of Religion, Syracuse University, Remote Part-time teaching faculty in the Department of Religion at Syracuse University, contributing to courses in religious studies and related disciplines.

Education

- 2008–2015 PhD in Religion, Syracuse University
Doctoral research focused on Religion in the Americas and Indigenous religions
- 2002–2006 Master of Theological Studies (MTS) in Divinity, Brite Divinity School at Texas Christian University
- 2004–2007 Master of Theology (ThM) in Divinity, Brite Divinity School at Texas Christian University
- 1997–2002 Bachelor of Arts (BA) in General Studies, Warner University

Skills

- Digital Humanities Digital scholarship, Web development, Data visualization, Digital archives, Electronic publishing
- Indigenous Studies Indigenous rights, Decolonization, Indigenous history, Traditional knowledge, Indigenous governance

| | |
|-----------------------|---|
| Operations Management | Strategic planning, Project management, Organizational coordination, Process improvement, International relations |
| Academic Research | Religious studies, Ethnography, Qualitative research, Literature review, Academic writing |
| Web Technologies | HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Eleventy, Static site generators, Web administration |
| Web Administration | Site maintenance, Server management, CMS administration, Technical support |
| Documentation | Technical writing, API documentation, User guides, Markdown, RST |

Volunteer

| | |
|----------------------|---|
| Contributor & Author | Doctrine of Discovery Project: Contributing research and commentary on the Doctrine of Discovery and its impacts on Indigenous peoples and international law. |
|----------------------|---|

Languages

| | |
|---------|----------------|
| English | Native speaker |
|---------|----------------|

Interests

| | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| Indigenous Knowledge Systems | Traditional ecological knowledge, Indigenous governance, Indigenous pedagogy |
| Digital Culture and Technology | Digital humanities, Technology ethics, Open-source movements |
| Religious Studies | Comparative religion, Religion in the Americas, Theology and social justice |
| International Law and Rights | Indigenous rights, International advocacy, Doctrine of Discovery |

Publications

- Examining the Doctrine of Discovery in Religion and Indigenous Studies (Religion Compass, 2025). Co-author with Betty Hill. Analyzes the matrix of enslavement, exploitation, and extraction within settler-colonial systems and examines scholarly engagement with the Doctrine of Discovery across Religious Studies, Legal Studies, and Indigenous Studies.
<https://doi.org/10.1111/rec3.70039>
- Healing the Sacred: The Fight to Restore Onondaga Lake and Honor Indigenous Land (International Journal on Responsibility, 2025). Co-author with Betty Hill (Lyons). Examines environmental restoration and Indigenous land rights in the context of Onondaga Lake.
<https://doi.org/10.62365/2576-0955.1133>
- Documenting Domination in International Relations Through the Doctrine of Discovery (Cross Currents, 2024). Co-author with Betty Hill. Discusses AILA's work to dismantle the Doctrine of Discovery through international advocacy and collaboration, emphasizing the shift from rights-based to responsibility-based approaches.

<https://doi.org/10.1353/cro.2024.a963640>

- Book Notes: New Books in the Study of Domination (Cross Currents, 2024). Co-author with Betty Hill. Reviews books on domination, including works on Indigenous values, African Diaspora religions, and systemic oppression.
<https://doi.org/10.1353/cro.2024.a963642>
- 200 Years of Johnson v. M'Intosh: Indigenous Responses to the Religious Foundations of Racism (Cross Currents, 2024). Co-author with Philip P. Arnold and Sandra Bigtree. Examines the religious foundations of racism through analysis of the Johnson v. M'Intosh decision.
<https://doi.org/10.1353/cro.2024.a963625>
- The Religious Origins of White Supremacy and The Doctrine of Christian Discovery (Cross Currents, 2024). Co-author with Philip P. Arnold and Sandra Bigtree. Explores the theological and historical foundations of white supremacy through the Doctrine of Christian Discovery.
<https://doi.org/10.1353/cro.2024.a963641>
- Documenting Domination: From the Doctrine of Christian Discovery to Dominion Theology (Religions, 2023). Co-author with Betty Hill (Lyons). Traces the genealogy of Christian domination from fifteenth-century papal bulls through contemporary Christian nationalist theologies, analyzing colonial charters and primary sources.
<https://doi.org/10.3390/rel15121493>
- On the Limits of the Concept of Religious Freedom in Indigenous Communities (Journal of the Council for Research on Religion, 2024). Co-author with Betty Hill (Lyons). Critiques international legal framings of religious freedom, highlighting limitations in rights-based discourse and offering alternatives based on sovereignty and Two Row Wampum principles.
<https://doi.org/10.26443/jcreor.v5i2.117>
- Preface and Introduction: From Indigenous Religions to Indigenous Values Vol. 5 No. 2 (Journal of the Council for Research on Religion, 2024). Co-author with Philip P. Arnold and Sandra Bigtree. Introduces special issue on Indigenous religious freedom and belief, featuring contributions from Indigenous NGOs, nations, and leaders.
<https://doi.org/10.26443/jcreor.v5i2.108>
- Digital Humanities as Preserving Inherently Ephemeral Information (Bulletin for the Study of Religion, 2023). Explores the role of digital humanities in preserving ephemeral information and knowledge systems, particularly relevant to Indigenous scholarship.
<http://dx.doi.org/10.1558/bsor.28913>
- However, Extravagant The Pretensions Of Johnson V. M'Intosh (Canopy Forum: On the Interactions of Law and Religion, 2023). Co-author with Betty Hill (Lyons). Peer-reviewed article examining Johnson v. M'Intosh and its legal and religious implications.
<https://canopyforum.org/2023/03/23/however-extravagant-the-pretensions-of-johnson-v-mintosh/>
- Introduction to 200 Years of Johnson v. M'Intosh: Law, Religion, and Native American Lands (Canopy Forum, 2023). Co-author with Philip P. Arnold and Sandra Bigtree. Introduction to thematic series examining 200 years of Johnson v. M'Intosh, its legal foundations, and religious origins.
<https://canopyforum.org/2023/03/10/introduction-to-the-200-years-of-johnson-v-mintosh-law-religion-and-native-american-lands-series/>
- Reavers ain't men [sic]—or they forgot how to be: Teaching Religion in Science Fiction (Perspectives in Religious Studies, 2018). Explores pedagogy and methodology for teaching religion through science fiction narratives, examining themes of humanity, identity, and religious meaning.

<https://libezproxy.syr.edu/login?url=http://search.ebscohost.com/login.aspx?direct=true&db=rft&AN=ATLAi5live>

- Religion and culture: contemporary practices and perspectives (Book Review) (Perspectives in Religious Studies, 2014). Review of contemporary practices and perspectives in the study of religion and culture.
- The world's religions: a contemporary reader (Book Review) (Perspectives in Religious Studies, 2014). Review of contemporary reader on world religions.
- Religious and Sexual Nationalisms in Central and Eastern Europe (Book Review) (Journal of Empirical Theology, 2015). Review of 'Religious and Sexual Nationalisms in Central and Eastern Europe: Gods, Gays and Governments' by Sremac and Ganzevoort.
https://brill.com/view/journals/jet/29/1/article-p133_6.xml
- Catastrophic Christianity: An Iconological Study of the Messianic Idea in American Protestant Christianity Circa 1900-1940 (Syracuse University, 2021). PhD Dissertation. Analyzes the messianic idea in America through four case studies examining fundamentalism, authoritarianism, commodification of religion, and hucksterism in early 20th century U.S. culture.
<https://surface.syr.edu/etd/1544/>